1. EXTENSION ACTIVITY BY COMMERCE DEPARTMENT ON LABOUR DAY 01-05-2022

Labour Day (Labor Day in the United States) is an annual holiday to celebrate the achievements of workers. Labour Day has its origins in the labour union movement, specifically the eight-hour day movement, which advocated eight hours for work, eight hours for recreation, and eight hours for rest.

For most countries, Labour Day is synonymous with, or linked with, International Workers' Day, which occurs on 1 May. For other countries, Labour Day is celebrated on a different date, often one with special significance for the labour movement in that country. Labour Day is a public holiday in many countries.

Department of Commerce, VKV Government Degree College, Kothapeta organized an extension programme on Labour day. Staff members of Commerce Department Dr. K Satyanarayana, Sri H Sriram Pavan, Smt. Ch. N S Lakshmi and 40 students from II and III B.Com visited the nearby working places of labour and expressed the labour day wishes to them. Students and staff interacted with Labour and identified their efforts in society. Students distributed Cool drink and snacks to labour in honour.

4.FIELD LEVEL OBSERVATION OF MEDICINAL HERBS AT
BOTANICAL GARDEN, VKV, GDC
ORGANIZED BY BOTANY
DEPARTMENT-04-05-2022

Botanical tourism is travelling to see plants, either in their native environment or in managed botanical gardens and parks. Generally, a greater variety of plants can be seen in the one place by visiting a botanical garden and no special preparation is needed, so gardens are a good introduction to the subject.

Department of Botany organized A Field level observation of Medicinal Herbs at Botanical Garden, VKV, Government Degree College, Kothapeta on 04th May 2022 to aware the students about medicinal plants. Head of the Department of Botany Sri.N. Nageswara Rao, Lecturer in Botany Jayasee and BZC students were participated in this programme.

6.GUEST LECTURE

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

17-05-2022

A guest lecturer is an individual who possesses advanced knowledge of a particular subject area, and who speaks about that subject area to a group or organization with which he/she is normally not involved. Beyond this basic definition, the exact nature of guest lecturing can vary widely. In the university context, a guest lecturer is often a faculty member who is invited to speak to a class she does not normally teach. Guest lecturers are also commonly invited to address professional and social organizations as well as elementary and secondary school groups. Finally, a guest lecturer may speak to groups of travellers, particularly on cruise ships, as part of a tourism experience.
